

SKATOONY

SKATOONY

Skatoony is an animated/live-action comedy series that pits tweens and toons against each other in competition through frantic, trivia-based rounds - but only one will be named Skatoony Quiz Champ. Set in a fantastical television studio in the fictional town of Showtown, the series is anchored by the hilarious cartoon duo of host Chudd Chudders and his lounge-singing sidekick, The Earl. Each week, they attempt to put together another show, while all manner of mad happenings occur around them...but the show must go on!

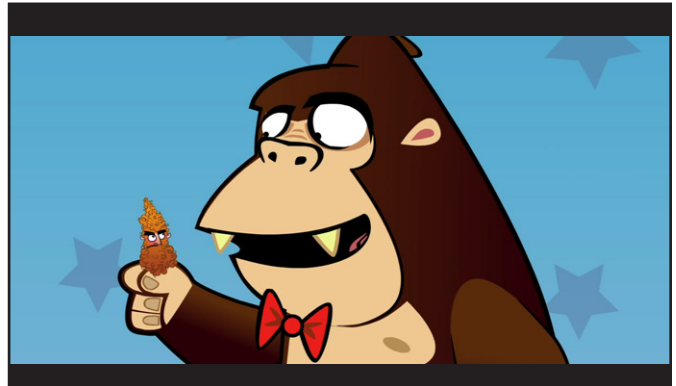

Skatoony interactive features the Skatoony Home Game, a multi-player game where kids play Skatoony in real-time against other kids on the website. In addition, the website features all the crazy Skatoony personalities, the Earl About Town mini-game where kids help protect the Earl on his way to the studio, the Skaraoke player to listen and sing along to catchy Skatoony tunes, and bonus video content hosted by the Earl and Chudd.
