

SPLATA LOT

SPLATALOT

A hilarious medieval-themed physical game show geared to the tween audience, Splatalot features an extreme obstacle course with heaps and loads of splats and spills. Each episode features a different group of thrill-seeking teen contestants, dubbed Attackers, competing in three cringe-inducing rounds: Cross the Moat, Storm the Castle and Steal the Crown. The Defenders of Splatalot, an international squad of medieval-themed gladiators, will do their best to protect the castle from the Attackers – leaving one to be crowned King or Queen of the Kingdom.

The splat-stick comedy continues within an interactive online environment, where viewers can find everything about their favourite Defenders, check out Splatrivia and Tour the Castle with a detailed look at each obstacle. With a series of Flash games, including an upcoming multi-player competition game, viewers can take on the roles of both Attackers and Defenders, to run, jump, shoot, fire, splat and of course, try to capture the crown. Viewers can also create shareable highlight reels with the Highlight Shaker to mix up their choices of the best splats and Defender taunts.
